

AUSU
ATHABASCA UNIVERSITY
STUDENTS' UNION

500 Energy Square, 10109 – 106 ST NW
Edmonton AB T5J 3L7
phone: 780.497.7000
toll free: 855.497.7003
ausu@ausu.org; www.ausu.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Athabasca University Students Union Accepts Councillor Resignation

Edmonton, Alberta – July 13, 2016

Athabasca University Students Union (AUSU) regretfully accept the resignation of Councillor Philip Kirkbride from AUSU Council effective June 24, 2016.

Philip Kirkbride was elected to AUSU Council in the August 2015 by-election, and was re-elected in the general election in March 2016. He has served on the Awards Committee, the Finance Committee, the Member Engagement and Communication Committee, the Forensic Audit Committee, and the Executive Compensation Review Committee during his time with Council. He is also an occasional contributor to The Voice, AUSU's online student magazine.

On behalf of the AUSU membership, we would like to thank Philip for his service and wish him all the best in his future endeavors.

The Athabasca University Students' Union (AUSU) is an independent, student-run society representing the undergraduate students of Athabasca University.

We serve over 35,000 members annually in home-study locations across Canada and internationally. In any given month, our membership is in the order of 26,000 active students.

Our mandate is to provide advocacy, support, and student services to our membership, and to foster the support, promotion, and excellence of distance education at AU and globally.

For more information about AUSU and its programs, please see www.ausu.org, or contact our office at ausu@ausu.org.

COUNCIL

Shawna Wasylyshyn, President
Brandon Simmons, VP External
Kim Newsome, VP Finance
Josh Cross, Councillor
Andrew Gray, Councillor
Scott Jacobsen, Councillor
Julian Teterenko, Councillor
Dixie Toliver, Councillor

STAFF

Sarah Cornett - Executive Director/Voice Editor-in-Chief
Donette Kingyens – Communications and Member Services Coordinator
Karl Low - Voice Managing Editor
Jamie Mulder – Administrative Assistant

Issued on behalf of AUSU Council