

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Athabasca University Students Union Accepts Councillor Resignation

Edmonton, Alberta – May 10, 2019

Athabasca University Students Union (AUSU) regretfully accepts the resignation of councillor Julian Teterenko, effective May 10, 2019.

Julian Tetrenko was a member of AUSU council since April 2016, and held the role of VP External and Student Affairs from September 2016 to April 2018. He also sat on the Finance Committee, the Bylaw Review Committee, and the Awards Committee.

On behalf of the AUSU membership, we would like to thank Julian for his great work as part of the AUSU team, and we wish him all the best in his future endeavors.

The Athabasca University Students' Union (AUSU) is an independent, student-run society representing the undergraduate students of Athabasca University.

We serve over 35,000 members annually in home-study locations across Canada and internationally. In any given month, our membership is in the order of 26,000 active students.

Our mandate is to provide advocacy, support, and student services to our membership, and to foster the support, promotion, and excellence of distance education at AU and globally.

For more information about AUSU and its programs, please see www.ausu.org, or contact our office at ausu@ausu.org.

COUNCIL

Brandon Simmons, President
Melinda Goertz VP External & Student Affairs
Natasha Donahue, VP Finance & Administration
Sarah Blayney Lew, Councillor
Brittany Daigle, Councillor
Darcie Fleming, Councillor
Amanda Lipinski, Councillor
Alice Namu, Councillor
Lisa Oracheski, Councillor
Joshua Ryan, Councillor
Mark Teeninga, Councillor

STAFF

Jodi Campbell – Executive Director
Donette Kingyens – Communications & Member Services Coordinator
Duncan Wojtaszek – Governance & Advocacy Coordinator
Karl Low - Voice Managing Editor
Jamie Mulder – Administrative Assistant

Issued on behalf of AUSU Council