

AUSU Committee Application Form

Student Advisory Committee

AUSU members who wish to sit on a the AUSU Student Advisory Committee must complete this form in full and submit it to AUSU at ausu@ausu.org.

The primary role of the committee will be to provide the leadership of AUSU and its stakeholders with feedback on varying student topics as required throughout the year. Such topics may include:

- AU service standards
- AUSU advocacy priorities
- Bylaw and policy revision feedback
- New initiatives feedback
- University services

Committee work is done entirely by email and teleconference. There are 10 seats available to AUSU members, which must include at least one program student from each AU undergraduate faculty.

Membership: Membership on the committee will align with the AUSU fiscal year (October 1, 2019 to September 30, 2020). The committee membership is voluntary, and members will still be eligible to apply for AUSU awards and bursaries.

You can read the full terms of reference for the Student Advisory Committee online here (pdf).

Time Commitment: The majority of the committee work will be done by email. Members will occasionally be asked to provide feedback on various student topics throughout the year and should expect to devote up to 1 - 2 hours per month for email correspondence. The committee may also be called upon to attend teleconference meetings to discuss specific topics, with a minimum of one-week notice being provided for the meeting. Members will require access to a reliable phone and a computer with internet connection.

Please review the following documents before applying:

- Policy 8.10 Committee Terms of Reference: Student Advisory Committee
- Policy 2.07 Council Governance: Member Representatives on AUSU Committees
