

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Athabasca University Students' Union Accepts Councillor-Elect Resignation

Edmonton, Alberta – April 14, 2020

Athabasca University Students' Union (AUSU) has accepted the resignation of Councillor-Elect Jasmine Hernandez effective April 8, 2020.

Jasmine was elected as an incoming student councillor during the 2020 AUSU General Election. On behalf of the AUSU membership, we would like to thank Jasmine for her interest in the AU Students' Union and wish her all the best in her future endeavors.

The Athabasca University Students' Union (AUSU) is an independent, student-run society representing the undergraduate students of Athabasca University.

We serve over 38,000 members annually in home-study locations across Canada and internationally. In any given month, our membership is approximately 26,000 active students.

Our mandate is to provide advocacy, support, and student services to our membership, and to foster the support, promotion, and excellence of distance education at AU and globally.

For more information about AUSU and its programs, please see www.ausu.org, or contact our office at ausu@ausu.org.

COUNCIL

Brandon Simmons, President
Natasha Donahue, VP External and Student Affairs
Sarah Blayney Lew, Councillor
Darcie Fleming, Councillor
Melinda Goertz, Councillor
Christine Hudder, Councillor
Alice Namu, Councillor
Lisa Oracheski, Councillor
Joshua Ryan, Councillor
Mark Teeninga, Councillor

STAFF

Jodi Campbell – Executive Director
Donette Kingyens – Communications and Member Services
Coordinator
Duncan Wojtaszek – Governance and Advocacy
Coordinator
Karl Low – The Voice, Managing Editor
Jamie Mulder – Administrative Assistant

Issued on behalf of AUSU Council