

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Athabasca University Students' Union Accepts Councillor Resignation

Edmonton, Alberta – March 25, 2021

Athabasca University Students Union (AUSU) regretfully accepts the resignation of councillor Devon Romanick from council, effective March 17, 2021.

Devon Romanick was elected to council in April 2020 and also participated in a variety activities over the course of her term. On behalf of the AUSU membership, we would like to thank Devon for all of her great work on council and we wish her all the best in her future endeavors.

The Athabasca University Students' Union (AUSU) is an independent, student-run society representing the undergraduate students of Athabasca University.

We serve over 38,000 members annually in home-study locations across Canada and internationally. In any given month, our membership is approximately 26,000 active students.

Our mandate is to provide advocacy, support, and student services to our membership, and to foster the support, promotion, and excellence of distance education at AU and globally.

For more information about AUSU and its programs, please see www.ausu.org, or contact our office at ausu@ausu.org.

COUNCIL

Stacey Hutching, President
Natalia Iwanek, VP External and Student Affairs
Almigidad Eldoma, VP Finance and Administration
Darcie Fleming, Councillor
Karen Flether, Councillor
Kathryn Hadden, Councillor
Regan Johnson, Councillor
Katy Lowe, Councillor
Amber McDuffe, Councillor

STAFF

Jodi Campbell – Executive Director
Duncan Wojtaszek – Governance and Advocacy Coordinator
Karl Low – The Voice, Managing Editor
Tim Hanson – Social Media Assistant
Jamie Mulder – Administrative Assistant

Issued on behalf of AUSU Council